Thank you for your support. This woman has e-mailed most of our board members and I do not have any idea how she got the e-mail addresses. Some of them she has contacted through LinkedIn and others through personal e-mail such as yours. I do not belong to LinkedIn so it didn't come through anyone here. They are not coming from us because we never post or give out e-mail addresses. We have filed a libel suit against this woman and this should be resolved soon. Even Mike's e-mails have been cut and pasted and are not true. I am not so concerned that our board's will believe it but it will certainly hurt any new business we might be bidding for. Thanks again.

That is so not true. There have been no changes to her son's emails. One should not make excuses for one's kids.
